Though Prosaic Be Your Tasks Why Not Sing? the Dancer Ask

Says a Little Dancing, Too, Will Aid Us in the Work We Do.

SCRUB AND SCRAPE TO RHYME, EVEN BEAT RUG TO TIME

Rhythmic Movements on the Farm Will Not Bring the Crops to Harm.

(News Note.—Raymond Duncan says according to the sketch. It is believed bigger, our soil more fruitful if we will carry the Greek thought into our agricultural pursuits.)

on joyful toe as you start another row and your rhythmic, songful hops will be blessed with bumper crops. Raymond Duncan says it's so and, of course, he ought to know, for as every person knows, Duncan frisks in Grecian clothes. One plain bed sheet forms his suit, at the tailors he can hoot, as sans trousers, like sans hose, frolics he through winter's snows.

Not alone the lettuce sweet should be grown to twinkling feet, but with dance and happy song boost the weekly wash along. Trill a Hoffmann barcarole, while one shovels in the coal, and with Pannic pipes, one can scour up each pot and pan. Not with gloomy anvil clang, but with songs which Homer sang, let us to our daily toil, which a pleasant tune can oil. As we starch and blue the clothes, little lyrics will compose, stopping as the tasks advance to perform a song-and-dance.

Clerks, whom madding sums befog, stop to do some breakdown clog. Farmers, pause when hours drag, soothe yourself by singing rag; stevedores, when muscles ache, do that fancy walk-de-cake; scrub the clothes to tuneful rhyme, sweep and beat the rugs to time. Duncan says if you do this every line of work were bliss. Crops you planted with a song certainly won't come up wrong. Everything will turn out right if you sing from morn till night. Let us plant that "twilio." Then start at work with song and dance!

POSTOFFICE WILL NOW TELEPHONE LETTERS

Service Not for El Pasoans But For the Londoners.

London, England, Jan. 26.—It will be interesting to see, in the course of the next few weeks, the extent to which the public will make use of a new postal and telephonic system for the delivery of messages in London on Sunday, which the postoffice inaugurated recently.

The new system may briefly be summarized as follows: Any person without the London postal area who desires that a message shall reach someone within that area on Sunday may now effect this through the ordinary medium of the post, provided that the intended recipient of his message is on the telephone.

He must post his letter in time to catch the night mail to London—which, of course, varies in different localities, and may sometimes be extended by payment of a late fee—and he must address it to the Central Telegraph office, London, E. C. It is imperative also that he inscribe the envelope, "for telephone delivery on Sunday," and draw a conspicuous perpendicular line across the face of each side of the envelope.

The letter must bear the usual stamp. With the message itself the sender must state the name and telephone number of the person for whom the message is intended, and must also state his own name and address.

Transmission Charge.—The charge for transmission of the message by telephone will be 6 cents, for not exceeding 30 words, and 8 cents for each additional 20 words or less. A message of 35 words, therefore, would cost 12 cents as would also one of 60 words. These charges must be prepaid by stamps affixed to the paper containing the message. No special form is required. The same letter may contain messages for more than one telephone subscriber, a separate fee being charged for each.

It is left to the sender to decide at what hour the message shall be telephoned, and he may not specify a time the message will be telephoned at 8:30 a. m., but in any case it will not be transmitted before that hour. If the call meets with "no reply" the postoffice will continue to "ring up" at short intervals until the subscriber's attention is gained. If no communication is established Sunday the message will be telephoned on Monday.

It does not matter whether the addressee has the postoffice or national telephone company's installation and although the regulations use the word "subscriber," it may be taken that anyone in a message provided that the actual subscriber's name is started by the sender.

The new system originated in the "intelligence department" of the general postoffice. The new scheme provides the nearest approach to a Sunday postal delivery which London is likely to enjoy.

COLORADO, TEXAS, SCHOOL IS BURNED

An Ermine Opera Wrap

POSED BY MISS RAMEY OF THE NEW THEATRE

The opera season is at its height in February, when all society is busy with gaieties which occur between the holidays and the annual exodus to Palm Beach and the southern pine woods. And such garments as this illustrated opera wrap of unspotted—or tailless—ermine, with a border trimming of the black brushes, are in favor. The cloak is quaintly like the old fashioned "Mother Hubbard," with its little yoke and full lower portion.

Skating Parties In Canada

Chief Glory of Canada Is Its Snow and Skating Parties.

Ottawa, Can., Jan. 26.—"The chief glory of Canada is its winter," exclaimed Sir Wilfrid Laurier one crisp night last week. The enthusiasm of the thousands who nightly cheer the swiftest hockey in the world, the bright eyes and rosy cheeks of the boys and girls, men and women who seek sport with ski and toboggans on the slopes of the snow clad hills, all endorse the premier's verdict, although the immigration authorities and railroads deplore excessive exploitation of Canada as a land of ice and snow.

In Ottawa, which is one of the most enthusiastic sporting cities of Canada, the one for indulgence in winter sports, is given by the governor general himself. At Rideau hall, there is a capital rink and an excellent slide, so that countless Grey's "at home" cards, with "skating and tobogganing" written in the corner, are eagerly waited each winter.

The rink on Saturday afternoons in January and February is thronged with graceful skaters.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the outward symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these external manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will sooner or later cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. Only a blood purifier can cure Contagious Blood Poison. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time, because of their strong mineral nature, and leave the poison smoldering in the system, have brought disappointment to thousands. The disease always returns after such treatment. S.S.S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes into the blood, and removes every particle of the poison, making the circulation pure, rich and healthy, nor does S.S.S. leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S.S.S. does not contain any mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, which are most valuable in their blood-purifying properties, and at the same time specifically adapted to building up the entire system. If you have Contagious Blood Poison S.S.S. will cure you because it will thoroughly purify your Blood. Home Treatment Book, and any medical advice free to all.
